VOLUNTEER AGREEMENT

This Agreement is entered into between:

(1) Youth Alive Uganda whose Registered Office is at Plot 148B, Old Kira Road – Kamwokya, Kampala. ("The Employer")
And

(2) Mutebi Phoebe ("The Volunteer").

It is Agreed that Youth Alive Uganda will employ the Employee on volunteer terms and the Volunteer will work for Youth Alive Uganda on the following terms and conditions:

1. Job title

The Volunteer's position is that of: In school Volunteer.
You will directly report to the Project Manager.

2. Employment

The Volunteer agrees that he/she will at all times faithfully, industriously, and to the best of his/her skills, ability, experience and talents, perform all of the duties required of this position. In carrying out these duties and responsibilities, the Volunteer shall comply with all Youth Alive Uganda policies, procedures, rules and regulations, both written and oral, as may be announced by the Employer from time to time. It is also understood and agreed to by the Volunteer that his assignment, duties and responsibilities and reporting arrangements may be changed by the Employer in sole discretion without causing termination of this agreement. Regular performance reviews will be conducted to assess your performance and suitability.

3. Commencement and continuity of employment

Start Date: 1st May 2024

End Date: 31st December 2024 (Renewable by Mutual Consent, Availability of Funds, and Job Performance)

Employee Initials: _____

During any period of notice of termination (whether given by the Volunteer or by the Employer) the Employer may require the Volunteer not to attend his/her place of work for the duration or part of the notice period and/or may at its discretion relieve the Volunteer of some or all of his/her contractual duties during that period. During the period of notice, the Volunteer will remain an employee of Youth Alive Uganda and remain bound by these terms and conditions. This will not affect the Volunteer's entitlement if any that reflects the value of all contractual benefits that would have been due to the Volunteer during the period of notice.

16. Indemnity

The Volunteer will indemnify Youth Alive Uganda in respect of any liability incurred by the Organization as a direct consequence of the Volunteer's negligence, breach of contract, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Organization.

17. Data Protection

The Volunteer consents to the holding and processing of personal data provided by him/her to Youth Alive Uganda for all purposes relating to this Agreement, but not limited to administering and maintaining personnel records, paying and reviewing salary and other remuneration and benefits, undertaking performance appraisals and reviews, maintaining sickness and other absence records and taking decisions as to the Volunteer's fitness for work.

The Volunteer further acknowledges and agrees that Youth Alive Uganda may, in the course of its duties as an employer, be required to disclose personal data relating to him/her, after the end of his/her employment.

18. General

Youth Alive Uganda reserves the right to vary the terms of employment contained in this Agreement. The Organization will notify the Volunteer in writing within 2 weeks of such variation. This statement replaces all of the Volunteer's previous terms and conditions of employment with the Organization.

[This Agreement shall be construed in all respects under the laws of the republic of Uganda and the Courts of Uganda shall have non-exclusive jurisdiction in all matters relating thereto.]

and shall further not use any such information in a manner which may either directly or indirectly cause losses to the Employer. Confidential information includes (but is not limited to) financial information, commercial information, technical information, sales and marketing information and project secrets.

11. Property

The Volunteer acknowledges that all files, customer records, lists, books, records, literature, software, products and work products developed by the Volunteer in the course of his/her contract with the Employer, and other materials owned by the Employer or used by the Employer in connection with the conduct of business by the Employer shall at all times remain the sole property of the Employer, and the Volunteer agrees that upon request and upon termination of the Volunteer's contract hereunder, howsoever arising, the Volunteer shall surrender to the Employer all such files, customer records, lists, books, records, literature, products, software, work products, and any copies thereof and all other property belonging to the Employer.

12. Other employment

The Volunteer must devote the whole of his/her time, attention and abilities during his/her hours of work to his duties for the Employer. The Volunteer may not, under any circumstance, whether directly or indirectly, undertake any other duties during his/her hours of work under this Agreement.

The Volunteer may not, without the prior written consent of the Employer (which will not be unreasonably withheld) outside his/her hours of work with the Employer work for, advise or in any other way assist, whether directly or indirectly, any business or employment which is similar to or in any way connected or in competition with the business of Employer or which could or might reasonably be considered to impair the Volunteer's ability to act all times in the best interests of the Employer.

13. Grievances

If the Volunteer has any grievance in relation to his/her engagement, he/she should raise it with either the HR Department, Line Manager or direct supervisor orally or in writing. For further details of the grievance procedure applicable to this Agreement, the Volunteer should refer to the HR Policy.

14. Company rules

Youth Alive Uganda has adopted a set of rules and regulations to protect the health and safety of all employees, partners and customers and to ensure high standards of conduct, performance and service, a copy of which is available in the HR Policy. The Volunteer is required to read the Company rules and take all necessary steps to ensure that they are properly observed. Failure to adhere to Company rules will result in disciplinary action, which may include dismissal, in accordance with the Company's Discipline Procedure.

15. Termination of employment

This Agreement may be terminated by either party giving two week's notice to the other. All notices of termination shall be given in writing.
